

A black and white photograph of a crowded beach. In the foreground, several people are lying on towels or blankets. A woman in a patterned swimsuit is lying down, and a man in a dark swimsuit is sitting up. To the right, a woman is wearing a large, wide-brimmed straw hat. In the background, many other people are scattered across the sand, some sitting and some standing. Large beach umbrellas are open, providing shade. The overall scene is a busy, sunny day at the beach.
